Richmond; Lady Guinevere Llandpoore, an English primrose,—daughter of the Earl of Paynaught, Edwina H. Lane. Admission 25 cents.

The Meriden, Conn., Record says of Dr. Jon Jackson's recital: "The event proved a rare treat to music lovers. Dr. Jackson is no stranger to Meriden, for his work at one of the school concerts challenged attention and awakened the most ardent admiration. Last evening, however, there was even more opportunity of gauging his wonderful ability. Whether it were in oratorio or in simple ballad, his glorious tenor voice was equally satisfying. He has a remarkably wide range. Though peculiarly effective in selections calling for a dramatic quality, he is delightful in songs, and his groups of German, Scotch and English ballads were veritable gems." Dr. Jackson will give a recital here on May 26. Tickets 50, 35 cents. Opera house.

Cleared for Action.

WORTH A THOUGHT.

This Statement Will Interest Scores of Barre Readers.

The facts given below are worth a perusal by all who are anxious about their physical condition or are similarly situated to this resident of Orange. It is a local occurrence and can be thoroughly investigated.

Mrs. A. M. Andrews (A. M. Andrews, farmer), residence, Orange, says: "Some two years ago I first noticed pain in my back and hips and as the weeks and months went by it became more severe and were of much longer duration. Finally too frequent action of the kidney secretions was added to the backache, and as they were often distressing and annoying health ran down and it was impossible for me to do the slightest household work with any degree of pleasure. If I was on my feet for any length of time I was taken with dizziness and blurring before my eyes and I often became so weak and nervous that I almost fell. A lady friend in Barre recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to me and my husband went to E. A. Drown's for the first box. I cannot positively state that the remedy has actually rid me of the cause of the backache and other complications due to kidney complaint, but I must conscientiously say that from the benefit received I have the greatest confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills and believe that what is said about them is not misrepresentation."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
